VOL. XXIX.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1901. 9 A. M.

NO. 59

MIDDLEBURG.

The sick are all convalescing. Farmers are busy cutting fodder and housing tobacco.

Peaches are about gone; this year's yield being the largest in years. There will be a good crop of winter apples.

A meeting of the Casey County Teachers' Association will be held here next Saturday, the 29th. A large delegation of teachers is expected to be present.

We have had a couple of frosts, but they were too light to do any harm. These chilly mornings go pretty hard with the writer, who almost wishes he was back in the tropics.

Albert Bastin, who was so horribly cut a few nights ago, is improving, though not out of danger. He was stabbed three times. It was reported that Wall had been captured in Tennessee, but subsequent reports are that they were false.

Several from this vicinity attended the Maccabees picnic at Liberty Saturday. E. V. Loveless, of Somerset, is visiting friends here. Mr. and Mrs. John Eason, of Lancaster, are visiting relatives here. J. H. Allen and wife, of Somerset, are taking in the Centennial.

Centennial exercises commenced at the Baptist church Friday night and continued over Sunday night. The original program was not carried out on account of the absence of the greater part of those on the program. A series of protracted meetings will begin Monday night to continue about two weeks.

Your correspondent returned from Somerset Friday after a pleasant stay of three days, it being our first visit to the Pulaski capital since we held up our hand in the fall of '99 to defend "Old Glory" against her enemies. There is a very little noticeable change in the old town save a few suburban residences and the supplanting of the "blind tiger" by open saloons. Thursday was memorial day and it was most fittingly observed in Somerset—all the business houses closing, and they together with the court-house and other public and private buildings as well, were decorated in mourning. There was a grand parade in town, participated in by the G. A. R., Odd Fellows, school children and Spanish-American and Philippine war veterans, Sergeant Coleman and Cook Loveless, of the gallant 41st, adding lustre (?) to the letter. Those in parade and others were assembled in front of the court-house, where Judge James Denton in a few well chosen remarks stated the reasons and purposes of the day's observances and paid a glowing tribute to the dead executive and denounced anarchism in most scathing terms as most detrimental to a liberty-loving people. A local band discoursed appropriate airs. More extended ceremonies were held in the opera house in the afternoon. We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Campbell, of the Journal, and who edited the I. J. over a quarter of a century ago. Also Albert Wesley, an old Casey boy. Wesley is the republican nominee for county attorney, which, of course, is equivalent to an election in rock-ribbed Pulaski. He was formerly city attorney and won the latter nomination after a hotly contested campaign with Thomas Morrow as his opponent. W. R. Gooch, formerly of McKinley, and the I. J. representative at that place, is now located in Somerset. We also met J. H. and H. C. Allen, who were formerly in the goods business here, the former at one time being connected with the Janie Wash Institute as one of the faculty, now with the Tibbals Drug Co. C. C.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Beeches German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Penny's Drug Store. Get Green's Special Almanac.

"I want you to be my friend," said President Roosevelt to Senator Hanna. "I am your friend, and my friends shall be your friends," replied Senator Hanna to President Roosevelt. "Deliver me from my friends!" exclaimed Job when boiling over with afflictions.—Louisville Times.

LOW RATES TO MINNEAPOLIS.—One fare round-trip Queen & Crescent Route, October 1 and 12 account National Convention of the Christian church, finest service in the South. Be sure your ticket reads via this line. Ask ticket agents for particulars. W. C. Rinearson, G. P. A.

Mrs. Letitia Garrard, aged 84, is dead at Frankfort.

About the Dead President.

The body of the late President McKinley will be guarded for 90 days by a detachment of soldiers from the regular army.

The people of the United States will be given the opportunity to contribute to a fund to erect a McKinley monument at Canton.

President McKinley carried $315,000 in life insurance policies. There are three policies of $100,000 each, one of $10,000 and one of $5,000.

According to the statement of T. E. Drake, deputy State superintendent of insurance in Ohio, President McKinley carried policies of insurance on his life amounting to $150,000.

Never before on this continent has such a floral display been seen at any public occasion as that in Westlawn cemetery, where President McKinley was laid to rest. The vault was lined with the rarest and costliest flowers, a multitude of floral pieces was spread on the ground before the door of the vault, and for 100 feet to the right and left of the doorway, and for half as many feet to the rear of a line passing through the front wall it was impossible to tread, so thickly did the tributes lie. Nearly every country on both hemispheres was represented by an offering. The number of those from the United States is almost past counting. They came from every State in the Union, and there is scarcely a man in public life whose tribute of respect for the virtues of William McKinley did not lie beside his coffin remains.

The value of the estate of the late President McKinley, inclusive of everything he owned and the insurance policies upon his life, is believed to be about $200,000.

When Mr. McKinley was elected for the first time he had just lost practically every cent he possessed by indorsing notes for Ohio friends. He was a most generous man, caring little for money. He stepped into the White House financially wrecked, not merely having lost all his money, but heavily in debt, and with notes against him.

His friends, prominent among whom were Mark Hanna and H. H. Kohlsaat, went to his rescue. They took up his paper and put him on his feet. The president was frugal and lived plainly at the White House. He saved a good part of his salary of nearly $1,000 a week, and devoted it to repaying the friends who had come to him in the hour of need. Eventually he paid back every penny advanced on his behalf, a sum total of about $100,000.

One of Mr. McKinley's closest personal friends said the other day that the Canton house was worth $12,000 and the farm $30,000, and that, with securities and cash of $100,000 and insurance of $50,000, the estate would be worth a trifle more than $200,000.

The late president left a will, the bulk of the estate going to the widow.—Philadelphia Times.

Anarchy and Anarchists.

An Italian miner at Leadville, Colo., who said it was the right thing to kill McKinley, narrowly escaped being lynched.

"I am an anarchist and I did my duty," said the assassin of President McKinley. The American people are not anarchists, and they must do their duty.—Bryan's Commoner.

The people of Des Moines believe they have discovered, in a letter found on the person of a wounded anarchist, a clue to a conspiracy against the late President McKinley's life.

The experts who have been examining the bullets and revolver with which Czolgosz killed President McKinley, have failed to find any traces of poison after making two thorough tests.

Leon Czolgosz will never fill the chair of eloquence in Emma Goldman's anarchist school, but it is almost certain that he will fill the chair of electrocution as established by authority of the Legislature of New York.—Bowling Green Times-Journal.

Six policemen made a raid on an anarchist meeting in Newton, borough of Queens, New York, and succeeded in capturing Johann Most and several other anarchists. There were 500 people in the place, and the police were forced to use their clubs freely before they captured the prisoners.

Charles C. Moore, editor of the Blue Grass Blade, uses the following language in referring to the assassination of President McKinley: "Damn all anarchists! Squelch all of their papers; such as 'Free Society' and 'Discontent.' Swipe out the whole infernal, cowardly, treacherous gang of assassins and arrest, as a suspect, any man or woman who calls himself or herself an anarchist."

Inter-State Fair, Louisville, Sept. 23 to Oct. 5. Reduced rates Q. & C. Route for this occasion, one fare round trip; ask ticket agents for particulars.

At Bogue Allen's sale, near Cartersville, Garrard county, yearling cattle brought $16 to $22, heifers $13, milk cows $25 to $32, hogs 5c and corn $1.00 in the field. Auctioneer J. F. Cook tells us.

Lutes & Co. bought at Lancaster yesterday a load of light feeders at 3 to 3 1/2. They bought of I. S. Tevis 10 1,000-pound heifers at 3c and of Grant North 22 1,400-pound cattle at 3 1/2 to 3 3/4.

Came to my place about the 10th a black sow and barrow, weight about 150 pounds. Owner can have same by proving them and by paying for their keep and this notice. W. H. Dudderar, Rowland.

Creascus beat The Abbot again at Roadville, Mass., Saturday, but the latter horse got the second heat. The time was slow, the fastest heat being the last 2:07 1/2. Over 12,000 people saw the race.

LANCASTER COURT—A big crowd attended Lancaster court yesterday and most of the 200 or more cattle on market changed hands. The best price paid was 3 1/2, which was for a bunch of two year-olds. Some common cattle sold as low as 2 1/2. The mule market was very brisk, sucklings selling at from $10 to $60 and aged mules at $100 to $160. Hubble & Eubanks bought 14 cotton mule colts at $35 to $48. There was very little demand for horses and few were sold.

Thomas Fletcher and Miss Lucille Cundiff, eloped to Hunterville, Tenn., and were married. The groom is a member of the firm of Clark, Moore & Co., and one of our best young men. His bride is a daughter of Mr. Charles Cundiff, of the Oak Hill neighborhood, and one of Pulaski's prettiest girls.—Somerset Republican.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Revs. Martin Owens, John Todd and John Long held a protracted meeting at Etta, Pulaski county, which resulted in 24 additions.

The Northern Presbyterian church has in the last 10 years received 798 ministers from other denominations and dismissed to others 405.

Rev. H. C. Garrison, of Danville, is conducting a protracted meeting at Broadway Christian church, Lexington, and President Burrus A. Jenkins, of Kentucky University, will fill his pulpit Sunday.

CAME NEAR BEING A CRIPPLE.

Josh Westhafer, of Loogootee, Ind., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Craig & Hocker.

On account of the National Missionary Convention of the Christian church at Minneapolis, Minn., the L. & N. will sell round trip tickets at one fare Oct. 7, 8, 10 and 12.

The Rev. Low G. Wallace, chaplain of the State prison, will be a candidate for the democratic nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Richard Scott, an uncle of George W. Pulliam, who used to live at Harrodsburg, died at Jeffersonville, O., yesterday.

Everett Bean accidentally shot and killed himself in Nelson county.

GEORGE C. KELLER, JR.

Of this office, is one of the best all-round newspaper men in our knowledge. Besides knowing every detail of the printing business he can pen as readable a paragraph as the next one. He can set more type than two ordinary men and imposes a 32-page form about as quickly as most printers do a note head. A natural mechanic, Mr. Keller can tell what is wrong with a press at a glance and about as quickly he makes the necessary changes or repairs. Having spent nearly a fifth of a century in the INTERIOR JOURNAL office, he is now regarded as a part of it and a very valuable part he is. Like the rest of the force, Mr. Keller is a true-blue democrat, but takes little part in politics save to vote. He is 35 years old and has an interesting family of a wife and two children. He is originally from Harrodsburg, but has lived in Stanford long enough to call it home.

LANCASTER.

The members of the Christian church are invited to attend the C. W. B. M. convention on next Thursday. Dinner will be served on the grounds.

Barley seems to be very scarce in this section. Rye for seed is also scarce, several parties having been inquiring for it during the last few days.

FOR RENT.—In Lancaster, a house of 10 rooms, garden and stable. Centrally located and well suited for a boarding house. For reference, John M. Orand, 5th and Jefferson Streets, Waco, Texas.

Robert Saufley, of Stanford, is visiting Ware McRoberts. Mrs. John Farrar is very ill again at the home of her father, Mr. Joseph Burnside, in the country. Miss Bene West is improving rapidly, we are glad to note.

Miss Lizzie Brown led the Christian Endeavor very creditably Sunday evening. Miss Mary Thompson will lead at the next meeting, which is a consecration meeting. The president urges that each member bring their contribution.

J. W. Bales, of Richmond, bought export cattle as follows: Of A. C. Robinson & Son, 20 at 5 1/2, of J. A. Doty 38 at 5 1/2, of A. R. Denny, 36 at 5 30, of J. W. Elmore, 30 at 5 1/2. A. C. Robinson & Son bought 90 feeders at 3 1/2 to 4c for October delivery.

Our farmers say grass was never more plentiful at this time of the year, but they say it is well, for corn is so scarce and high. Hogs are in demand at from 7 to 7 1/2 in the city, which is very good for those who have them to sell, but very bad on people who have to buy meat.

A Card.

I desire to say that I accept the action of the Democratic Executive Committee of Lincoln county in declaring Isaac Herrin the nominee of the democratic party for the office of jailer. I am now and always have been a democrat and have supported the nominees of the party loyally in all elections and I now assure the democrats of Lincoln county that I will keep the faith and stand by the nominees in the pending contest, and I also hereby announce that I am a candidate for the democratic nomination for the office of jailer of Lincoln county in the year 1904. DINK FARMER.

Sept. 20th, 1901.

WATER CURE FOR CHRONIC CONSTIPATION.

Take two cups of hot water half an hour before each meal and just before going to bed, also a drink of water, hot or cold, about two hours after each meal. Take lots of outdoor exercise—walk, ride drive. Make a regular habit of this and in many cases chronic constipation may be cured without the use of any medicine. When a purgative is required take something mild and gentle like Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

Samantha Aliff has been appointed postmaster at Barcamp Mills and H. B. Tye at Tidal Wave, Whitley county, and W. C. McAfee at Vandersell, Mercer county.

Near Bardstown, a little son of Shelby Wilkinson, was run over by a wagon and killed.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is always pleased to note a reformation of morals or manners in man or beast. A distinguished instance occurring last week, our duty as a journalist requires that the public shall have the information. When Gov. Goebel was prostrate from the assassin's bullet and his death daily expected, the present republican nominee for sheriff was heard to say that he felt no grief; that "Goebel's d—d heart ought to be cut out." Last Thursday when the good people of this community assembled in memorial service to express individual and collective sorrow because of the assassination of their president, this gentleman played the role of chief mourner. We accept this unmistakable evidence of a change of heart. Mr. Menefee has a long time been a consistent and exemplary church member, though somewhat given in times of deepest wrath to say cuss words a little louder and a little oftener than the law allows "a housekeeper with a family;" but a close and intelligent observer of his sacerdotal demeanor Thursday could not have failed to be impressed with the belief that he had lopped off even that little excrescence from the branches of his moral manhood. He did not even cuss Czolgosz—at least not loud. What a marked reformation since Taylor had Goebel killed! He not only wanted Goebel killed—assassinated—he wanted his "d—d heart cut out." Mr. Menefee has discerned the error of his way. As Debo puts it in his classical english, he "seen his duty and done it." It repeats him that he ever approved assassination. It strikes his moral astuteness as being a very ungodly way of getting rid of a man. The scales have fallen from his eyes, even scales as big as a dinner plate. Now if any "man and brother" is thinking that he ought to vote against Mr. Menefee for endorsing the assassination of Goebel, let us assure that deluded brother that Mr. Menefee has reformed. We are sure he has reformed. Did we not see him with craps on his arm and bowed head last Thursday! Beside this, has not Mr. Menefee proved that he can reform in politics. Perish the thought that Mr. Menefee has not reformed. If any good democrat doubts it, let him go to Mr. Menefee now and ask him if he could still cut Goebel's heart out and we will lay a wager that he will say so with a big N.

THE democrat of Lincoln county were never in better shape and unless all signs fail the magnificent ticket nominated on March 16th will be elected by an overwhelming majority. It is also more than probable that all of the four democratic magistrates will read their titles clear. There is every reason why democrats should win and win they will. Compare the two tickets, consider the condition of the county at present and think of it four years ago and no man who has the good of Lincoln county at heart will vote to again turn over the affairs to the republicans. Judge Bailey's record is enough to insure his election, which even the honest republicans will admit. Hons. M. F. North and Harvey Helm, Supt. Garland Singleton and Clerk George B. Cooper each have records that they are willing to stand on and which are good enough to elect them to any office they might ask, while Messrs. M. S. Baughman, M. G. Reynolds and W. I. Herrin are so well fitted for the offices they aspire that to defeat them would be a calamity. There is no turnout nor democrat-for-revenue-only about these gentlemen, whose valiant services for the party they love have been felt in many hot elections and who have been ever ready to respond to democracy's call. Take the two tickets, collectively or individually, and if the republican turnout crew does not suffer by the comparison we will bear the consequences. This is democratic year and the result of November's election is a mere question of democratic majority.

OKLAHOMA people know how to treat brutes. An anarchist, who had made unpatriotic remarks about America and the late president, was made to kneel in the mud, give three cheers for his country and kiss the flag. He was then pelted with stones and ordered to leave town. A man who criticized the police for not interfering was placed in jail in order to protect him from violence.

THE following from Mr. Bryan's Commoner shows that the writer is a man with a heart, who has no desire to attach blame where it does not belong: If any one is tempted to criticize Mr. Roosevelt for going off on a hunting expedition at a time when the president was critically ill, let it be remembered that he could have given no better proof of his faith in the executive's recovery.

A LOUISVILLE woman wants $5,000 damages for being bugged. At that price only millionaires and sleeping car porters could indulge in that very pleasant pastime.

THE Lexington Democrat is a yearling now and a lively one it is.

THE Danville Advocate needn't worry about Lincoln county's politics being mixed. The situation is satisfactory to Mr. Dick Farmer, who has much more democracy than the Advocate has shown itself to possess in the last five or six years. Better attend to the good ticket the democrats of your county have named, Brer Wollolk.

POLITICAL.

The democratic nominees for county school superintendent in Boone and Boyd counties and the republican nominees for the same office in Grant and Marion have been selected too late to be examined under the regular rules for a certificate of qualification, and unless they are willing to take a much more difficult examination they will be disqualified.

Democrats of Laurel county nominated the following ticket: Judge, Samuel H. Young; Sheriff, D. J. Jones; Jailer, A. P. Moore; Assessor, Samuel Wyatt. Henry S. Bowling was nominated for representative for this and Rockcastle counties. A resolution was adopted at the convention indorsing the administration of Gov. Beckham and condemning anarchy and assassination.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Bob Ross was shot and killed on 2d street in Danville Saturday night by Tom Fife, also colored. Fife is in jail.

Peter Perciful shot and probably fatally wounded George Childress in Rockcastle. He mistook him for a panther or wildcat walking through the weeds.

The Antioch Oil & Gas Company, of Burnside, has been organized with the following officers: J. L. Grissom, president; Will R. Reid, secretary; A. C. French, treasurer. Three wells will be sunk near Burnside at once.

An application made by Charles McConaghy, T. J. Oatts, J. R. Oatts, G. M. Hedrick and W. R. Cress, of Monticello, to organize the Citizens' National Bank of Monticello, has been approved by the controller of the currency. The bank will have $25,000 capital.

Since the temporary exchange of editors between the Harrodsburg Democrat and INTERIOR JOURNAL, we learn that Ed Walton is besieged with applications for a similar arrangement. The Journal has secured promise of first call and Lewis Landrum gets next.—Somerset Journal.

Fire at Corbin destroyed the Florence Hotel, Martin Hotel, Dryden House, Shotwell House and Isaac Miller's bakery. Loss about $8,000; partially covered by insurance. J. H. Holland, formerly of Casey, kept a saloon in the Shotwell House and his loss is about $1,000, with no insurance.

Both were thrown out and the younger's head struck a telephone pole, receiving injuries from which she died 24 hours later. BROWN.—Mrs. Charles Brown, aged about 30, died near Poplar Hill, Casey county, and was buried Saturday. A husband survives.

IN the police court Forest Hansford, of color, was fined $5 for beating Bettie Blankenship, a dusky damsel. Hansford is working out his fine on the street.

THE Warren Grigsby Chapter, of the U. D. C., will meet with Mrs. J. N. Saunders this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Subject of discussion, Joseph E. Johnson. A full meeting is requested.

HANSFORD.—Mart Hansford, aged 32, died near Phil, Friday. He was a son of J. W. Hansford, and was a sober and industrious young man. A wife and three little children are left to mourn a severe loss.

ACQUITTED.—George W. Walt, president of the defunct Somerset Banking Co., was acquitted at Danville yesterday of the charge of swearing to a false statement made by his bank. The jury had been out since Saturday.

ASSIGNED.—Mr. W. R. Minor, a Moreland merchant, has assigned to Dr. Ed Alcorn, of Hustonville. His liabilities are in the neighborhood of $3,000 and assets $1,500. Dr. Alcorn offers his stock of goods in another column.

SALE.—J. G. Weatherford, administrator of W. D. Weatherford, will sell publicly on Saturday, Oct. 19, at his late home near Hustonville 55 shares of stock in the National Bank of Hustonville, his horse stock, cattle, farming implements, &c. See ad. next issue.

BIG CONTRACT.—Dink Wilkinson, of the firm of Taylor & Wilkinson, of Burnside, tells us that they have contracted to furnish S. O. Church & Co., of New York, 1,000,000 export staves. The staves will be gotten out in the woods between Burnside and Oneida, Tenn. They have a year in which to fill their contract.

TRUNK RIFLED.—Last week Mrs. Mary Veatch, who was coming from her Western home to visit her brother, Mr. Clay Adams, at Liberty, had her trunk rifled at Junction City and $180 worth of clothing and valuables were stolen. She came into that place on the Q & C. and as the trunk was still checked the loss will fall on the railroad company.

THE Hustonville correspondent of the Somerset Republican, who is none other than Mr. W. R. Williams, a former red-hot free silver democrat, but who now occupies the unenviable position of taracat, is writing some mighty saucy letters to his paper about the political situation in this county. About the 6th of November Mr. Williams will come to the conclusion that he is neither a prophet nor the son of one and that what he doesn't know about the game of politics would fill a volume.

DINK'S ALL RIGHT.—As we predicted in our last issue, honest old Dink Farmer is all right and if you doubt it, read his card elsewhere in this paper. We have always had abiding faith in "Uncle" Dink's democracy and paid no attention whatever to the silly reports that he was going to "fly the coop." He announces his candidacy for jailer four years hence and that he will win goes without saying. Everybody will be for him and he will walk into office without the least effort on his part. Three cheers for the old wheel-horse! May he live long enough to serve the county several terms as jailer.

PREWITT.—Burdett Prewitt, the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Prewitt, of Liberty, died at Deming, New Mexico, last week and was buried in the Hustonville Cemetery yesterday, after a touching funeral discourse by Elder J. Q. Montgomery. The handsome little fellow had been a sufferer from throat trouble for a long time and his loving parents, as a last resort, had taken him to New Mexico with the faint hope that the climate would help him, but it did not, and now all that is mortal of the idolized son lies under the sod in Hustonville cemetery, where only a few years ago a little brother was laid away. Burdett was a manly, fine little fellow and will be sadly missed, not only by his heart-broken parents, but by all who knew and loved him. We extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Prewitt in their great sorrow.

Stock of single and double-barrel shotguns just in. Craig & Hocker.

SEPTEMBER 28 is the last day for filing claims against the county to be allowed at the October term. Geo. B. Cooper, clerk.

THE Maccabee picnic at Liberty did not draw as large a crowd as was expected but the 400 or 500 people who attended enjoyed the day greatly. At 11 o'clock a gaily decorated carriage containing Hons. W. B. Cochran, Geo. T. Farris, R. H. Tomlinson and Supreme First Master Guard M. F. Elkin, followed by 30 or 40 knights on horseback in full regalia, left Liberty for the fair grounds, where the balance of the day was spent in a general picnic. Mr. Cochran, who was master of ceremonies, introduced Mr. M. F. Elkin, of this place, who talked for some 30 minutes on the good the order was doing, its strength and growth. Statistics are usually tiresome but Mr. Elkin dropped in an occasional joke and threw bouquets so promiscuously (sometimes to the ladies) that his speech was enjoyed throughout. He has been working for the order of Maccabees for seven years and has been mainly instrumental in increasing the membership in Kentucky from a mere handful to nearly 10,000. He has written over $3,000,000 insurance in it and has seen a great deal of money paid to the widows and orphans of deceased Maccabees. Hon. R. H. Tomlinson, of Lancaster, who everybody thought was a sanctified Methodist preacher, was the next speaker. He always has something interesting to talk about but he was unusually full of good things Saturday. His picture of a Maccabee's death, the weeping of the widow and fatherless children and the helping hand extended by the great order in the sad hour, brought tears to many eyes, while his anecdotes, which he told well, drove away sadness and made one forget his troubles. "That gentle man is the best Maccabee in the State or he is the worst fake that ever lived," remarked Harry Raines, who heard Mr. Tomlinson's speech. "He is one of the fathers of the order," Mr. Elkin quickly replied and a little later Messrs. Tomlinson and Raines took a walk to a nearby spring. A game of base ball was played between the Liberty and Phil teams but we left before it was completed. Perfect order prevailed and the day was one that will not soon be forgotten by the Liberty Tent of Maccabees or those who were fortunate enough to be with them at their picnic. The Liberty tent is one of the most flourishing in this part of the State and its growth has been almost phenomenal. Its members are all staunch citizens, who love the order and who do not spare time in working for its furtherance.
